

PATROL

(JOBS IN RED MUST BE FILLED. OTHERS ARE OPTIONAL, BUT A JOB FOR EACH MEMBER IS ENCOURAGED.)

PATROL LEADER assigns jobs in the patrol, represents patrol at PLC meetings and reports back, leads patrol meetings, helps patrol members advance, and leads work for getting patrol awards
ASSISTANT PATROL LEADER the patrol leader, and does the patrol leader's job if he isn't there
PATROL QUARTERMASTER keeps track of all patrol equipment between outings and supervises the cleaning and storage of equipment after outings
PATROL SCRIBE takes notes in patrol meetings and writes down attendance at each troop and patrol meeting
SERVICE AND GOOD TURNS LEADER Helps patrol members be aware of service projects that can be done together or on our own, keeps track of the patrol's group service work
PATROL SPIRIT LEADER/HISTORIAN in charge of the patrol flag and brings it to all troop outings, teaches the patrol yell to new members, keeps track of patrol souvenirs and trophies
WEBELOS GUIDE shows Webelos around when they visit the troop and are assigned to spend time with the patrol
UNIFORM INSPECTOR makes sure everyone in the patrol has the right uniform and knows how to wear it and is ready for troop inspections
GRUBMASTER (CAN BE A DIFFERENT SCOUT FOR EACH OUTING) writes down the menu and recipes and shopping list, gets the food and stores it so it won't spoil
ADVANCEMENTS LEADER keeps track of what rank each member of the patrol is so that members can help each other advance, sees what badges people would like to work on together
KNOTS & LASHINGS SPECIALIST takes a special interest in Knots and Lashings, hones own skills in this area, and helps patrol members improve skills
ORIENTEERING SPECIALIST takes a special interest in Orienteering, hones own skills in this area, and helps patrol members improve skills
FIRST AID SPECIALIST takes a special interest in First Aid, hones own skills in this area, and helps patrol members improve skills
COOKING SPECIALIST takes a special interest in camp Cooking, hones own skills in this area, and helps patrol members improve skills	